Series (mathematics)

Quality Assured Subject: Mathematics The third book in the Investigations series from Spectrum Maths was aimed at students in the upper stages of primary schools who were working at levels three to six. A best-selling series for well over 15 years, Spectrum still leads the way because it works. Cauchy's methods led to special rather than general criteria, and the same may be said of 1832 , who made the first elaborate investigation of the subject, of from 1842 , whose logarithmic test 1873 and 1889 have shown to fail within a certain region; of 1842 , 1843 , 1846, 1847, the latter without integration ; 1847 , 1852 , 1852 , and 1853.
