Good women remain feminine and kind, and always morally understandable, as they should be, and the villainess almost always regrets the qualities that made her an outcast. Partono per la tangente per un nonnulla; tutto è sempre il contrario di tutto e poi viceversa; elaborano teorie intricatissime per delle ovvietà. This displays the lack of credible anatomical basis within the creation of these characters.

Body Image

. If, as Bettelheim suggests, fairy tales provide a way for children to relinquish childhood dependencies, gain a feeling of selfhood and of self-worth, and a sense of moral obligation, then it should also be recognized that the model of self which fairy tales present to children is one which is particular to patriarchal exaggerations of the female archetype.
