A Brief History of Ireland

This comparison is invalid and insulting to the survivors of the laundries. In 1937, when he was 19 years old, he was thrown from his motorcycle and hit a brick wall head first.

The Catholic church is ‘shocked’ at the hundreds of children buried at Tuam. Really?

However Rome only recognized a son's right to inherit. When Sir Bertrand first attempts to enter the antique mansion, the light moves about by some unknown power, and the door mysteriously slams shut as soon as the knight enters the castle. She carried out the first successful plantation of Ireland.

9 Female Warriors Who Made Their Mark On History

They sang and danced; they told evocative tales enriched by kindred experience and from those gone before them. In the 1900s Ireland moved towards civil war. Most of this stuff we're only getting to grips with the last two or so decades.

Critic slams 'crazed claims' about Ireland child burials

Why resign myself to menial housework? They're shrouded in layers of church-and-state secrecy to this day yet are the source of so much pain that healing may take many more generations to even begin.
