Plastic Pollution Solutions

If reducing pollution is suddenly and unexpectedly more expensive for a firm to achieve this year, then a rigid system will require the firm to incur heavy—and, for some firms in some economic climates, insurmountable—costs to meet the regulation. This is a very positive development that has occurred mostly because EPA is concerned the the Republican Congress might repeal the 1990 Amendments in total. The company launched e-business projects, did pilot tests for them and then decided whether to abandon or continue them.
