A key event in the school's sporting calendar is the annual against which is organised by the student association. The Camborne School of Mines Association serves all former students of the school, founded in 1896. A new computer suite is also available for accessing online careers information, vacancy services and specialist software on, for example, sources of funding for courses and worldwide volunteering.

Camborne School of Mines: the history behind the School

This is pleasingly apparent in the CSM magazine. Research within CSM is co-ordinated by the three multidisciplinary groups. The question was raised within the putative Higher Education Funding Council and within the whether or not a mono-technic institution could be considered a university.
