Notes on St. Botolph, without Aldersgate, London. by Staples, John New,

That bishopric having been dissolved by Queen Mary, and the abbot and monks restored to their convent, this church reverted to its old masters; but when the monks were finally expelled, and the convent converted into a collegiate church by the authority of Parliament in the reign of Queen Elizabeth I, she granted the curacy to the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, in whom it still remains, subject however to the Bishop and Archdeacon of London to whom it pays procuration. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations.
