HandBook of Common Law Pleadings

If a document to be annexed to an affidavit or affirmation is voluminous and only discrete portions are relevant to the motion, counsel shall attach excerpts and submit the full exhibit separately.

Rule 4. Summons

And how did the realty company get involved? Quasi in Rem Attachment Proceedings. AND YES , EVENTHOUGH SEVERAL CAUSES OF ACTION ARE TIME BARRED

PART 202. Uniform Civil Rules For The Supreme Court & The County Court

The rules in Part III govern the practice and procedure in all criminal proceedings except in juvenile cases expressly provided for in Title 5 of NRS. The Committee received numerous complaints that the changes not only failed to achieve that goal, but that in the process the changes saddled litigators with flawed mail service, deprived litigants of the use of effective local procedures for service, and created a time limit for service replete with ambiguities that could only be resolved by costly litigation. Regardless of whether the papers are filed electronically or in hard copy or as working copies, counsel must submit as part of the motion papers copies of all pleadings and other documents as required by the CPLR and as necessary for an informed decision on the motion especially on motions pursuant to CPLR 3211 and 3212.

Civil Lawsuit

Unless otherwise permitted by the court: i briefs or memoranda of law shall be limited to 7,000 words each; ii reply memoranda shall be no more than 4,200 words and shall not contain any arguments that do not respond or relate to those made in the memoranda in chief; iii affidavits and affirmations shall be limited to 7,000 words each. Counsel may be permitted to ask follow-up questions. The revised rule explicitly authorizes a means for service of the summons and complaint on any defendant.
