U.S. Relations With Nigeria

Nigerian leaders have always tried to avoid direct involvement and even comment on this issue. It is the activity whereby a State deals with other States, non-governmental organizations, international organizations, and certain individuals. Increasingly however, a number of micro-States among them Malawi and Mali were abstaining on a number of crucial votes in the General Assembly and in the Security Council against South Africa.

UN General Assembly

Printed version of the journals is also available upon request of readers and authors.

UN General Assembly

The Militants equally warned the South Africans that the only way their citizens in Nigeria could be safe, is if they halt hostilities against their compatriots in South Africa doing legitimate business. This has seen DSTV growing into the sixth largest company listed on the Lagos Stock Exchange. Earlier, the Director, Centre for China Studies, Mr Charles Onurajju, said the bilateral relations and cooperation between Nigeria and China have grown phenomenally from its humble beginning 50 years ago.

Gowon elated over Nigeria

This is illustrated in diagram 1. Nigeria is the only country that has devoted the most resources.

Joseph Nanven Garba

The Structure and Processes of Foreign Policy Making and Implementation in Nigeria 1960-1990.

Xenophobia And Nigeria

From Support to a Government of National Unity to a Pro-MPLA Policy in Angola in 1975. But it is important to note that Nigeria and the Union of Soviets Socialist Republic USSR agreed even if not verbally about the actions taken by Nigeria over the issues of Angola, Zimbabwe, apartheid, and decolonization in Africa.

Diplomatic soldiering : Nigerian foreign policy, 1975

Hence, on the 28th May 1975, history was made when fifteen West African states assembled in Lagos and signed the treaty establishing the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS. Legum London: Africana Publishing, 1975 , A82.

Nigeria and the Struggle for the Liberation of South Africa

Nevertheless, both nations do not view their relationship from the mutual standpoint and is equally not interested in participating in super ordinate goals which cannot be achieved without the input of each state. Part of the philosophy of those early migrants was to contribute to the much needed nation building in post apartheid South Africa.
