The earth shall soon dissolve like snow, the sun forbear to shine; but God, who called me here below, will be forever mine. In fact the original tune can scarcely be found in any hymnal today! This well-known and often used Christmas spiritual has been recorded on over forty gospel, pop, bluegrass, and country Christmas albums, and remains a treasured Christmas hymn. The original Hebrew text for this hymn was written in the twelfth century by the famous Jewish philosopher, Moses Maimonides.

Old hymnals

Name of all majesty O come, O come, Emmanuel O little town of Bethlehem Peace to you The Lord will come and not be slow There's a light upon the mountains Thou who wast rich beyond all splendor Thy kingdom come! It did not achieve much popularity until the great English composer, Ralph Vaughan Williams, wrote what is considered one of his best tunes for it. Dear Name, the Rock on which I build, My Shield and Hiding Place, My never failing treasury, filled With boundless stores of grace! Christ is coming, let creation Christian, seek not yet repose Come, thou long-expected Jesus Down to earth, as a dove Earth was waiting, spent and restless Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go God is our fortress and our rock God moves in a mysterious way God, who hast caused to be written Hail to the Lord's Anointed Hark, what a sound, and too divine Herald, sound the note of judgment Hope is a star that shines in the night How firm a foundation In the bleak mid-winter Jesus came, the heavens adoring Lo, he comes with clouds descending O come, O come Emmanuel O day of God, draw nigh O quickly come, dread Judge of all Rejoice, rejoice, believers Sing we the King Sleepers, wake, a voice astounds us Sometimes a light surprises Songs of praise the angels sang Ten thousand times ten thousand Thanks to God whose Word was spoken The advent of our King The day of the Lord shall come Thy kingdom come, O God The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended The King shall come when morning dawns The Lord will come and not be slow Thou Judge of quick and dead View the present through the promise Wake, O wake, with tidings thrilling Waken, O sleeper, wake and rise We shall stay awake Will your anchor hold in the storms of life? But the emotions of grief during a time of loss are real and raw.

Hymns for John 20

His first reaction is to run into his parent's arms. Fill thou my life, O Lord my God For all the saints who from their labors rest Forth in the peace of Christ we go Give me the wings of faith to rise Glory, honour, endless prayers God is our song, and every singer blest God, we praise you, God, we bless you Great and wonderful are your deeds Hail, gladdening Light Hail, thou once-despised Jesus Here from all nations, all tongues and all peoples Holy God, we praise thy name How blessed are all the saints How bright these glorious spirits shine Let us sing the God of glory Light of the world, in grace and beauty Lo, he comes with clouds descending Lo, round the throne, a glorious band Look, ye saints! Son of God, eternal Saviour Spirit, come, dispel our sadness Still the night, holy the night The Lord created families Virgin-born, we bow before thee What wondrous love is this or Philippians 2:5-11 A spendthrift Lover is the Lord All hail the power of Jesus' name All praise to thee, for thou, O King divine And can it be that I should gain At the Name of Jesus Before the heaven and earth Behold, the great Creator makes Blest are the pure in heart Brother, sister, let me serve you Child in the manger Come, now is the time to worship Creator of the starry height Empty he came Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round Eye has not seen, ear has not heard Filled with the Spirit's power For the healing of the nations Forth in the peace of Christ we go From heaven you came, helpless Babe Glorious in majesty God is our strength from days of old God the Creator, you in love made me Hail, gladdening Light He is Lord, he is Lord Help us to help each other, Lord Here is the risen Son Holy Spirit, storm of love How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds I bind unto myself today I will offer up my life If you are encouraged Immortal love for ever full In the name of Jesus Jesus is the Name we honor Jesus, Name above all names Jesus shall take the highest honor Look, ye saints! Newspaper editor James Montgomery wrote this text nearly two hundred years ago for his Christmas Eve edition. A hymn of comfort that encourages and reaffirms Christians in their faith, no matter what they are going through.

The Ol' Red

Refrain In the sweet by and by, we shall meet on that beautiful shore. Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to the cross I cling; Naked, come to thee for dress; Helpless, look to thee for grace; Foul, I to the fountain fly; Wash me, Savior, or I die.

Ancient Hymn

Francis compares God's love to the ocean's waves. Saying no will not stop you from seeing Etsy ads, but it may make them less relevant or more repetitive.
