Higher education in Ontario

Leadership, Goals, and Power in Higher Education: A Contingency and Open Systems Approach to Effective Management. The stereotype of older professors clinging desperately to their posts despite declining abilities simply is not warranted on the evidence. This paper assesses the utility and role of institutional purpose statements.

Ontario's labour market

The Chairman specifically rejected the University's submission that the collective agreement justified the forced retirement of Professor Dickason. The agreements tend to be very specific between one university and one college.

1992 CanLII 30 (SCC)

Following this rule, the appellate court may not interfere with findings of fact except in cases in which the trier of fact has made a palpable and overriding error. Democratic institutions are meant to let us all share in the responsibility for these difficult choices. She was appointed professor emeritus, an indication of the esteem in which she was held.

Higher education in Ontario

They are subsumed in the objectives put forward to justify mandatory retirement by the defendant universities in McKinney which the University of Alberta adopted in argument before this Court. This is a question of fact to be determined by a board of inquiry subject to appeal proceedings. It chose not to do so.
