Strange and fearful is his discovery, amid the bric-à-brac of the world, that this knowledge, or this material benefit, is for him alone. Nowhere the lonely planetary effulgence: everywhere the jovial defiant twinkle of little stars! He is a notorious Carolian specialist, a quasi-Cavalier, a pre-Jacobite, a seventeenth-centurion, and all that.

Nor, on the other hand, will stupidity and submission promote longevity: for this is a bullying world. But the enviable end is the other: some situations have inherent dignity, and exist already in the play.
