the present, the victory of fear, and the persistence of hope

On 1 January 2018, the fusion of the auction houses Henri Godts and The Romantic Agony disembarked under the name ARENBERG AUCTIONS.

The Romantic Agony 1973, directed by Guido Pieters

A book with obvious wear. Known as a painter who highly valued his own works, he very rarely sold his canvases to Indonesian collectors, whom he regarded as having a commercial mentality.

Romantic agony, the soul of Pita Maha

The temporal distance existing in hope and in fear between the agent and the emotional object reduces emotional intensity-as do other types of distance. After being tortured, on July 2, 1947 he was killed by NICA police at the Dentiis graveyard, Batuan. It places as a forerunner to the romantics.

Romantic Compromises: The agony of

The dissonance between the possible and the actual, and the dissonance between the better and the inferior are at the basis of compromises. Romantic Agony: Fancy and Imagination in Samuel Beckett's Romantic Agony: Fancy and Imagination in Samuel Beckett's Rodriguez, Michael Angelo 2007-10-01 00:00:00 In , Samuel Beckett contributes to a discussion regarding an important Romantic distinction between Fancy and Imagination, suggesting that no matter how much Fancy, particularly its passive aspect, predominates in this text, the dynamic function of Imagination is never absent. It's like the high school quarterback dreaming of being in the NFL, while working at Dunder-Mifflin.
