For Holy Thursday at the NAC, there was the usual Mass of the Lord's Supper, celebrated by Cardinal Edwin O'Brien. On Wednesday of every Holy Week, Neri would set out with his companions on foot to visit each of the four major basilicas in Rome, as well as the three minor basilicas, stopping at each for a time of prayer.

Castle Howard

He uses the exclusive singular in the prayers of several Mass formulas from this period to illustrate this. They offer the Mass for specific intentions, and pray for the Pope, local bishop and the People of God. Art and artists must serve the cause, they have decreed—must help to smash the patriarchy or topple white supremacy or decolonize the academy—or they are the enemy of the people.

After this we have the childish stories of three or four other dreams: about Joseph going into Egypt; about his coming back again; about this, and about that, and this story of dreams has thrown Europe into a dream for more than a thousand years. They pit him against Pharaoh, as it were to box with him, and Moses carries the challenge.

All is mystery; all is darkness in that womb of thought. As in my political works my motive and object have been to give man an elevated sense of his own character, and free him from the slavish and superstitious absurdity of monarchy and hereditary government, so in my publications on religious subjects my endeavors have been directed to bring man to a right use of the reason that God has given him, to impress on him the great principles of divine morality, justice, mercy, and a benevolent disposition to all men, and to all creatures, and to inspire in him a spirit of trust, confidence, and consolation in his creator, unshackled by the fables of books pretending to be 'the word of God.'
