Karim Rashid

I created a building that uses pattern, geometry, light and color to provide the luxury of well-being to its inhabitants.

Karim Rashid

Emotion, Sensory, Poetic and Desire exert a highly positive influence on the mood of those who contemplate them.

UCLA Design Media Arts

I am also thinking about using colors to create and work with the experience, or the human engagement, of that certain task or function. Walking through the space visitors can go to either of the side rooms where many of Karim's famed designs from Bonaldo, Casamania, Label and Magis are on display. In addition suspended flat screen TVs and laptop stations sit alongside artwork.
