What Were Early Christians Like?

On this day the constellations display the birth narrative just before sunrise. In the West and eventually everywhere , the Easter celebration was later shifted from the actual day to the following Sunday.

Luke 17 Commentary

There are many approaches to sharing the gospel. Why is the birth story of Jesus so similar to the story of Danae in the Greek mythology before Christ? Sad to say, but most Jews today deny that Jesus was their promised Messiah and Saviour.

What Were Early Christians Like?

The only fixed method is the message: telling others about the gospel of Jesus Christ.

5 Bible verses on the responsibilities of a Christian, the ambassador of Christ

We meet together as an assembly and congregation, that, offering up prayer to God as with united force, we may wrestle with Him in our supplications. .
