There are two main objectives. Minkin , Contentious Alliance , p. The curbing of trade union power has been widely regarded as the major achievement of the Thatcher years, yet students of industrial relations have generally argued that little has changed on the shop floor.

A History of British Trade Unionism

The high level of their confidence masks the low level of their expertise. Many of her policies were by their natures one-off, yet few considered how Britain would pay its way in the world once North Sea oil and gas began to run out, the most valuable public assets were sold, and the proceeds of these windfalls spent.

1979 and all that: a 40

ICI and Thorn shut theirs straightway so that many skills could not be passed on. The Marxist Social Democrat Federation SDF is credited with some 689 paid-up members in 1886-7, but it seems to have had more than that, albeit ones who were unable or failed to pay.

David Marsh books and biography

Spending the proceeds arising from the sale of public assets may have been politically more acceptable, and more popular, than increasing taxes, further borrowing or cutting public expenditure. David Marquand , Ramsay MacDonald , London: Cape, 1977, pp.
