Nelson and the Hamiltons (Illustrated), Russell, Jack, BCA, 1969,

Beloved Emma traces Emma Hamilton's journey from Liverpool to London and life as an artist's model, through glittering success in Naples as the wife of Sir William Hamilton, and that legendary romance with Nelson, to her painful descent from the heights of fame to an early death in Calais. She was a daughter of a Cheshire blacksmith and was brought up in Wales by her grandmother.

Emma also owned several Maltese Cross pendants that became a favorite of hers. More than 4,000 popular, standard and official histories, important articles in journals and periodicals, anthologies, conference, symposium and seminar papers, guides, documents and doctoral theses are covered so that the emphasis is the broadest possible. The box was gifted by Nelson to his personal secretary George Unwin, during a dinner party in Sicily in late 1798 or early 1799.
