Old West Legends

Clare Folklore

At their height of popularity, there were 7,000 Burma-Shave signs stretching across America.

The Legend of Lylah Clare (1968)

A morsel of the fish adhered to his thumb, and immediately he received the knowledge for which the giant had toiled so long in vain.

Clare Folklore

Produced by Kathy Weiser-Alexander, narrated by Dave Alexander. To hear was to obey; but the young man wandered in vain through the town seeking a purchaser on the strange terms he required. The Gobawn having looked on at their ill-planned efforts for some time, took up an axe and laying his glove down as a block, quickly fashioned a number of pegs; then flinging them up one by one to the places already pierced in the couples for their reception, he threw the hatchet at each, and drove it home with unerring aim; then taking up his glove uninjured, proceeded quietly on his way, leaving the workmen lost in amazement.
