Coming together as a community to listen to opposing points of view is necessary. However, as Marvin Carlson makes clear, theater artists are not different from artists of other kinds in reacting primarily to the thoughts and practices of their immediate artistic predecessors. Let us know in the comments below! Through theatre, audiences are immersed in stories about characters from every background imaginable.

But we especially love the theatre and we believe that theatre is still important. Moreover, focusing just on the artistic appreciation of theatrical performances and accepting the achievement story about what the artistic value of a work of art is, there are still two further tasks. Most people in the crowd will be seeing the show for the first time and deserve the best performance possible.
