Monthly Review

Cite this chapter as: Siegfried D. The late and indisputably great Joe Strummer is honoured by the title track - a fabulous, exuberant, Maghreb-flavoured tear-up of the Clash's Rock The Casbah by French-Algerian superstar Rachid Taha - and the album closes with Strummer's gruff acoustic version of Bob Marley's Redemption Song. We must use negative situations Strummer said, to refocus and redirect anger and frustration and fashion music that is powerful to all who listen, always upsetting the status quo.
