Resolution Backing Egypt to Take GERD Meeting to the UNSC

Indeed, in keeping with the 60-year pattern, the authorities in both countries are seeking to exploit the latest suffering of Egyptian workers in Libya for political gain. The article then discusses how migration issues connect with other areas of state interest and diplomacy, including security interests, economic interests and issues of identity, soft power, and public diplomacy.

Other entry points through Tunisia, Algeria and Egypt are also used. It was a clear effort to starve the Libyan state and educational system of manpower.

A unique partnership between Denmark and the Arab world

Conflict with the South following independence in 1956 escalated into two civil wars, the second ending in 2004. These bilateral negotiations focused on strengthening security, but also improving infrastructure and transport linkages between the two countries in order to facilitate transit flows. .
