Legendary Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian Dies

He was a once-in-a-lifetime kind of coach. His daughter Karan Burke and three grandchildren preceded him in death. Pagna, who had played for Parseghian at Miami, also came along from the staff at Northwestern and coached the offensive backfield.

Era of Ara Still Seems Like Just Yesterday

He started every day by reading three newspapers -- the South Bend Tribune, Chicago Tribune and Chicago Sun-Times - - at a coffee shop at 5 o'clock in the morning. Good: A book that has been read but is in good condition. Notre Dame had always hired alumni and Catholics.

Notre Dame Football: The Faust

But it didn't take her long to realize he could protect himself.

Era of Ara Still Seems Like Just Yesterday

Georgia Tech — The Rudy Play Notre Dame scores a late touchdown vs. If we weren't driven like he and the other coaches were, we were in the wrong place.

The Enquirer

On a Cold Night in February Ara was shocked. He lives in Jackson, Michigan.

OFD BOOKCAST: Era of Ara begins at Notre Dame and Holtz changes things

So, Ara, at the tender age of 28, became a head college football coach. Notre Dame was using the elephant backfield, and the running backs were all big guys.
