Revised Policy on Counter

For example, in Argentina, Treasury Minister Nicolas Dujovne announced new targets for the primary fiscal balance and presented a new fiscal framework to increase transparency and credibility. Belize and Bahamas have strategies in place to reduce plastic use and are promoting conservation strategies for the Caribbean Sea which is the 2 nd most polluted with plastics. They use a digital platform to provide digital supply chain finance services to underserved small businesses.

Latin America and the Caribbean Home

Despite comprising about 8 percent of the world population, the region accounts for a third of the global coronavirus cases and deaths. Since the movement of goods is an integral part of the global economy and the generation of value added, a critical element of the Chinese approach is the control of transportation hubs, routes, and supporting infrastructure.

Latin American Countries Act to Protect Oceans from Plastics

A better alliance with Latin America is perhaps the lowest hanging fruit in foreign policy. Salinity is highest from January to May and lowest from June to December. However, crippled by environmental disasters and institutional instability, Haiti remains the poorest country in the hemisphere, even with built into the CBI for it.

Latin America and The Caribbean

We are dedicated to crafting and executing programs that strengthen the LAC region as a whole while meeting the diverse long- and short-term needs of individual partners in the region. Similarly, financially healthy Chinese firms, backed by financial institutions with money to lend, may have expanded opportunities to buy the assets of international companies selling their Latin American holdings to shore up their financial positions and pursue opportunities in more attractive markets such as Asia.

The Latin America That Will Engage the New Administration

The weight of the Dominican diaspora in the United States will make the Abinader government attentive to potential changes in immigration policy. In economic terms, achieving this objective involves building a strong and diverse economy, complemented by a robust commercial relationship with the rest of the world. Such sales and support also build and strengthen long-term relationships with Latin American armed forces.

Chinese Security Engagement in Latin America

In the case of Argentina, while civilian governments had historically granted limited funding to the military since the restoration of democracy in 1983, the leftist Peronist governments of Nestor Kirchner and of his wife Cristina Fernandez, who succeeded him, opened the door for the procurement of Chinese military equipment and expanded engagement with the PRC. This process constitutes a great challenge for the years to come, both for the State Parties to the Convention and for UNESCO.
