[PDF] L'histoire générale de l'Afrique de l'Unesco

Constructed in sections from the 5th century BC onwards, it was conceived as a unified means of communication for the Empire for the first time in the 7th century AD Sui dynasty. Sites include hundreds of historic buildings and town sites, important archaeological sites, and works of monumental sculpture or painting. The date coincides with the day in 1973 that the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted Arabic as the sixth official language of the Organization.
