Cleng Peerson and other Vanguard Norwegian Americans

Later that year, after Thomas and Eldbjørg had returned home to Norway, a delegation from Clifton, Texas visited Tysvær, Norway; and a discussion took place about a possible collaboration between Clifton and Tysvær.

Thus, when he died in Texas in 1865 on a Bosque County ranch - it was given to him by the State of Texas - he who had drawn the attention of farmers and fishers of Norway to a new, promising land more than any other emigrant, was still regretting that Norwegians had moved into the upper Mississippi Valley. Since 1977, the museum collection has outgrown the original church, so the museum board built its first addition to include room to display kitchen artifacts and indoor plumbing bath rooms not 1840s authentic however.
