Isn't Hindsight Brilliant? Healing My Body, Connecting to My Soul, Reclaiming My Life

If only you would keep completely quiet - that would be your wisdom! When they do it compassionately, without stigma or retribution, the healing comes quickly and recovery is possible. Unlike our ancestors, we live in a world where the hidden is not so hidden. Thank God that our synagogue, Calabasas , had for years been practicing the art of Henaynu.

Initially I figured I was just exhausted. Part of the success is a thoughtful approach to the formulation of the question.

Visiting the Sick

I am the rabbi, a human being regularly called to care for others; but I am also a husband, son, and son-in-law, struggling to figure out how to keep my head above the rising waters. May God send health and healing, spiritual and physical, to all the sick children of Israel .

One of the primary aims of those involved in care of the sick at any level should thus be to strengthen the sick person spiritually in order to help him overcome the backlog of discouragement, demoralization and depression that may be standing in the way of his trying to make changes and take new initiatives. In both cases, after services, people approached us both to share how they felt hearing their contributions included in the prayer.
