Scenic Rail Excursions

Do you need to make reservations so you don't get there and find out you can't board? Taken together, they would be indispensable guides for the dedicated rail fan or tourist who likes to ride scenic and historic trains and who also wants to visit railroad museums. With the completion of the Transcontinental Railroad in 1869, travel by rail across the entire country was made possible for passengers and commerce.

Soarin' Eagle Rail Tours

As an entertainment venue, folks want to be pampered and indulged. Another appendix gives a brief listing of some railroad attractions, mostly museums.

Train Vacations

It carries a range of subcategories, from photography to model trains, but general refers those who simply enjoy the subject of railroads.
