Failing To Protect: Systemic weaknesses within the UN human rights machinery

On September 11, Local media aired images of CMI officers in plain clothes storming court premises and arresting a lawyer and four suspects in the 2017 murder of senior police official Andrew Felix Kaweesi, after the court granted them bail. Apart from the instability it causes, the non-realisation of ESCR creates insurmountable obstacle to the enjoyment of Civil and Political Rights. They require dialogue, cooperation and constructive engagement.
