Description: Hajj in focus

Made pleasing to them is the evil of their deeds, and Allah does not guide the disbelieving people. Ihram Clothing for Hajj--the Muslim Pilgrimage to Makkah Mecca.

Virus transforms hajj in Mecca and future of the pilgrimage

The communal feeling of more than 2 million people from around the world - Shiite, Sunni and other Muslim sects - praying together, eating together and repenting together has long been part of what makes hajj both a challenging and transformative experience.

History of Hajj: Detailed focus on the etiquettes

All scholarly or business conversation is suspended during the hajj, in order to focus one's attention on God. There are several Ayah present in the Holy Book which provides us with guidance as to how to perform Hajj. Directly after the Hajj, Muslims all over the world will observe Eid al-Adha, or the Festival of Sacrifice.

Virus transforms hajj in Mecca and future of the pilgrimage

Muslims around the world celebrate the Islamic festival Eid al-Adha by slaughtering sheep, goats, cows and camels to commemorate Prophet Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son Ishmael on God's command. The hajj is one of Islam's most important requirements to be performed once in a lifetime. India has the second largest population of Muslim followers in the world with over 150 million faithful.
